JOURNAL OF RESEARCH

Vol. 12

2007

Faculty of Languages & Islamic Studies

Bahauddin Zakariya University
Multan.

Notes for Contributors

The Journal of Research (Faculty of Languages and Islamic Studies) is published twice a year. Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contribution, and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time. If an article is under such consideration, authors should clearly indicate this at the time of submission.

Authors are entitled to 20 free off prints and a copy of the issue in which their articles appear. Copyrights of articles rest with the publisher.

Articles should be typed on an IBM compatible word processor (preferably MS Word 2000, Adobe Page Maker 7) if at all possible, and a soft copy should accompany the typescript at acceptance stage. Soft copies should be labeled with the title of the articles, the author's name and the software used.

Article should be submitted in triplicate, double spaced throughout (including notes), with ample margins. Pages, including those containing illustrations, diagrams or tables, should be numbered consecutively. The article should conform to the Journal style outlined below. Any figures and tables must be clearly produced ready for photographic reproduction. The source should be given below the table.

Each manuscript should be preceded by a summary in English (of up to 175 words in length) which should be an abstract of the whole article and not of the conclusion alone.

In order to facilitate blind reviewing, the main text of two copies of the article should not include any clue to the author's identity.

Proofs will be sent to authors if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned to the Editor or Deputy Editor within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Style

References should be given in the text in the author/date style, i.e. "Smith (1988) argues...", "or as "... various authors argues (Smith 1988; Chandler 1991)..."

Quotations should be in single quotation mark. Long quotations of three or more than three lines should be indented without quotes.

All references should be listed alphabetically in Bibliography at the end of the article according to the following examples:

Ali Choudhry M. (1967) Emergence of Pakistan. New York , Columbia University Press.

Cockburn, C. (1980) The Local State: Management of Cities and People (3rd edn.) London: Plunto Press.

Lipson, J. G. (1994) Ethical issues in ethnography. In Morse, J. M. (ed.) Critical Issues in Qualitative Research Methods (pp. 333-55). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage.

Walther, J. B. (1996) Computer-Mediated Communication: impersonal, interpersonal and hyperpersonal interaction. Communication Research 23(1), 3-34

Manuscripts should be sent to Dr. Saiqa Imtiaz Asif, Associate Professor, Department of English, Bahauddin Zakariya University, Multan or Dr. Qazi Abdul Rehman Abid, Assistant Professor, Department of Urdu, Bahauddin Zakariya University, Multan-Pakistan.
